Election/Restrictions

1. Applicant's election without traverse of species A, drawn to Figure 1, in the reply filed on 27 March 2007 is acknowledged.
2. Claims 3-7 are withdrawn from further consideration pursuant to 37 CFR 1.142(b) as being drawn to a nonelected species, there being no allowable generic or linking claim. Election was made without traverse in the reply filed on 27 March 2007.

Specification

3. The abstract of the disclosure is objected to because it contains legal terms (see below). Furthermore, the abstract is replete with grammatical errors, and should be rewritten in idiomatic English.

Correction is required. See MPEP § 608.01(b).

4. Applicant is reminded of the proper language and format for an abstract of the disclosure.

The abstract should be in narrative form and generally limited to a single paragraph on a separate sheet within the range of 50 to 150 words. It is important that the abstract not exceed 150 words in length since the space provided for the abstract on the computer tape used by the printer is limited. The form and legal phraseology often used in patent claims, such as "comprising", "means", and "said," should be avoided. The abstract should describe the disclosure sufficiently to assist readers in deciding whether there is a need for consulting the full patent text for details.

The language should be clear and concise and should not repeat information given in the title. It should avoid using phrases which can be implied, such as, "The disclosure concerns," "The disclosure defined by this invention," "The disclosure describes," etc.

Claim Objections

5. Claims 1-2 are objected to because of the following informalities: The term "wheel-radially" should be replaced with the term --radially-- in claims 1-2.

Claim 2 is objected to for including reference characters not in parenthesis (see below).

Appropriate correction is required.

6. The claims are objected to because they include reference characters, which are not enclosed within parentheses.

Reference characters corresponding to elements recited in the detailed description of the drawings and used in conjunction with the recitation of the same element or group of elements in the claims should be enclosed within parentheses so as to avoid confusion with other numbers or characters which may appear in the claims. See MPEP § 608.01(m).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

7. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter, which the applicant regards as his invention.

8. Claims 1-2 and 8-9 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention. Claim 1 is indefinite due to the fact that it is unclear what element of the invention is being referred to by the term "thereon" in line 3.

Claims 1-2 are indefinite due to the fact that it is unclear what the last line of the claims, beginning with the phrase "located on the inner" is actually claiming.

9. The term "thick" in claims 1-2 is a relative term which renders the claims indefinite. The term "thick" is not defined by the claims, the specification does not provide a standard for ascertaining the requisite degree, and one of ordinary skill in the art would not be reasonably apprised of the scope of the invention. In this case, no qualitative or quantitative limitations have been provided to define the term "thick".

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

10. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

11. Claims 1 and 8-9 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Atwell, Jr. In Figures 4 and 4A, Atwell, Jr. shows a disk wheel 10 with a rim 16 located at the peripheral edge of the disk 14. The rim 16 includes left and right bead seats with a protruding hump and radially outwardly extending flanges. As best understood, a ring-like element 18 extends from the inner side of the rim 16, and is located between the hump and rim flange.

The wheel is a lightweight wheel 10, formed from an aluminum or magnesium alloy.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

12. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

13. Claim 2 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Atwell, Jr. Atwell, Jr. contains all of the limitations as set forth in paragraph 9 above, but does not specify that the cross-sectional area of the element 18 is 0.1-0.4 times larger than the cross-sectional area of the thickness of the rim flange plus the width-wise length of the bead seat multiplied by the thickness of the rim adjacent the hump.

It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time of the invention to form the ring-like element of Atwell, Jr. with a thickness sufficient to prevent the weight 26 from being dislodged during operation.

Conclusion

14. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. The Fitzgerald reference shows a wheel having radially inwardly extending ring-like elements.
